

On behalf of the North Liberty Telecommunications Commission, I am writing to oppose any relaxation in the rules governing media consolidation and cross-ownership. The North Liberty Telecommunications Commission believes that further consolidation of media companies will continue to drive up cable TV rates and have other negative effects on local media consumers.